Dear Mike and Friends at Sempra Employee Giving Network,

Thank you all so much for your extremely generous $2,500.00 gift this Thanksgiving season. You are rescuing hundreds of homeless and abused women and children at San Diego Rescue Mission.

As each weary mother brings her children to the gates of our emergency shelter this evening, and as each struggling family is welcomed to our Thanksgiving banquet in just a couple of weeks, I am grateful for partners like you that enable us to offer these desperate women and children hope. Many of these families will also enter the year-long Women and Children's Center here to leave life on the streets behind for good.

Thank you all again for your partnership in rescuing San Diegans in need and giving them the tools for recovery. God bless you and your families this Thanksgiving season.

Sincerely,

PS – Please stay tuned for news about our annual sleepout event, Sleepless San Diego, coming in April 2010. The Sempra Foundation has been a generous corporate sponsor in years past. You and your colleagues will definitely enjoy this great night under the stars to raise awareness of and support for homeless men, women, and children!
